

Biographical Information
For
Greg Adams, LCSW, ACSW, FT

Program Coordinator, Center for Good Mourning and Bereavement—grief support and related outreach programs and staff support for grief/loss issues at Arkansas Children's Hospital, 2001- present

Director, PalCare—the palliative care program at Arkansas Children's Hospital, 2006-2014

Adjunct Professor, University of Arkansas-Little Rock Graduate School of Social Work—teach Loss, Grief and Social Work Intervention. Named Community Faculty Member of the Year for the UALR College of Professional Studies in 2014.

Fellow in Thanatology: Death, Dying, and Bereavement by the Association of Death Education and Counseling (ADEC) and chair of ADEC's Credentialing Council

Past Professional Experience:

- Pediatric oncology social worker at Arkansas Children's Hospital for 10 years—named Social Worker of the Year by the Association of Pediatric Oncology Social Work in 2001
- Residential Treatment Manager/Therapist at Youth Home, Inc. for 4 years
- Clinical social worker with Veterans Administration Medical Center, Waco, TX for (almost) 1 year

Educational Background:

- Masters degree in social work, University of Missouri-Columbia, 1986
- Bachelors degree in social work and religion, Baylor University, 1985

Named Social Worker of the Year by the Arkansas Chapter of NASW in 2005

Married with two children--21 year old daughter (college senior) and 17 year old son (12th grade)